

Tanny Crane

President and CEO, Crane Group; Daughter of Robert Crane Jr.

Tanny Crane is President and C.E.O. of Crane Group, Columbus, Ohio. Crane Group, a privately-held family business, is a diversified portfolio company, comprising: ten manufacturing businesses, primarily serving the home building and commercial markets; real estate portfolio, investments in private equity firms, and equities/ bond portfolio.

Tanny Crane joined Crane Plastics Company (manufacturing business) in 1987 as Director of Human Resources, and became Vice President of Sales and Marketing in 1993. She became the President of Crane Plastics in 1996. In January, 2003, she succeeded Jameson Crane to her current position. Prior to joining Crane Plastics, she was Product Manager for Quaker Oats Company of Chicago, Illinois and National Account Manager at AT&T (Chicago). She received her M.B.A. in marketing and finance from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management-Northwestern University and her B.S. in administrative science, with a major in marketing, from The Ohio State University.

Ms. Crane is also active through a variety of board trustee positions. She serves as Chair of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland board, is a Director of Wendy's International, Inc., a member of the Columbus Partnership and a trustee of the Columbus Foundation. She serves as board Chair of the Columbus City Schools Education Foundation and is also an advisory board member of the Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University. Ms. Crane is past Board Chair of United Way of Central Ohio, and also served as 1999 United Way Campaign Chair. She is past President of the board of Action for Children.

Ms. Crane resides with her husband, John Wolff, and their two daughters, Tally and Ali, in New Albany.