

Peggy Lazarus

Community Leader; Daughter of Charles Lazarus

Peggy Lazarus has spent over thirty years in Columbus as a community volunteer in the fields of arts and education, and as a consultant. She attended Columbus School for Girls, Smith College, and lived and worked in New York City before returning to Columbus with her family. While raising three sons, she received a BA in Art History from The Ohio State University.

Her volunteer work in the arts includes serving on the Board of Trustees of The Greater Columbus Arts Council; Columbus Association for the Performing Arts (CAPA); Ballet Met; and currently, Pro Musica Chamber Orchestra. In addition, Ms. Lazarus has served as a Founding Trustee of Marburn Academy and on the boards of The Columbus Academy, as well as the Columbus Montessori Education Center. As a consultant over the years, she has worked with a variety of small retailers and non-profits in the areas of special events, fundraising, marketing and strategic planning.

Peggy Lazarus is currently affiliated with The Graham Family of Schools, which includes two highly regarded charter public high schools in Columbus. The Graham School is located in Clintonville; The Charles School at Ohio Dominican University is an Early College High School in partnership with Ohio Dominican University, located adjacent to the ODU campus.
