

Angela Pace

Director of Community Affairs, WBNS – 10TV

Angela Pace cares about the community. As a TV journalist, she used her visibility to benefit of many important causes. As a resident, she has an extensive record of community involvement.

Angela is the Director of Community Affairs for WBNS-10TV, serving as a liaison between WBNS and the Central Ohio community. She was raised and schooled in Columbus (Capital University and Columbus Public Schools). She has worked in central Ohio all her life. These kinds of roots give rise to her unflagging donation to the area in which she grew up.

Angela anchored the 6PM and 11PM editions of 10TV Eyewitness News for 13 years, beginning her on-air duties in March of 1993. She previously worked at WCMH-TV for 13 years. For five of those years she anchored the weekday 6pm, 7pm and 11pm newscasts. During her career at WCMH-TV, she worked as a floor director while still in college and later as a reporter. Angela also worked at WCLT Radio in Newark, where she was a news director as well as a reporter.

Her list of accomplishments and honors reflect her tireless commitment to the community. She currently serves on the board of directors for the Mid Ohio FoodBank, the Lincoln Theater Association, the Children's Hospital Foundation, the Columbus Association for the Performing Arts, and the Jazz Arts Group. She served on the Capital University board of trustees for eight years, and was also a member of the Capital University alumni board. Her work with the United Negro College Fund included hosting their annual telethon from 1987 to 1991 and serving as grand marshal for their walk-a-thon for four years. She was a board member for "I Know I Can" for 17 years. Angela is a member of the National Association of Black Journalists.

Angela was inducted into the 1992 Columbus Public School Hall of Fame and received the 1994 Women of Achievement Award from the YWCA of Central Ohio, the 1992 Governor's Award for Journalism and Community Service, the 1991 Woman of the Year for the Pilot Club and the YMCA-East, the Golden Rule Award from the Columbus School Board, the Pi Lambda Educator's Award, the 1983 Wink Hess Journalism Award, the Columbus Education Association's Martin Luther King Junior Humanitarian Award and the Capital University Outstanding Alumni Award. Angela also received the 1996 Toastmaster's International Leadership Award. And in 2006, the Columbus Symphony Orchestra board gave Angela the Music Educators Lifetime Achievement Award. Most recently, the Columbus Bar Association has established a foundation in her name. A large portion of the funds has been used to help build the new Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Children's Hospital.
