

Phil Sorentino, CSP

Growth, Profit, and Enjoyment Advisor, Humor Consultants Inc.

With more than 3,000 presentations, Phil's philosophy remains consistent with the overall mission of Humor Consultants, Inc., "assisting in the enjoyment of everything." His wide range of topics include employee, customer and member loyalty, consultative selling, business and financial results, attitude management and enjoying stress.

Phil has learned that the power of laughter unleashes the motivations of people to become the best that they can be. A few of his accomplishments include more than 31 years in business management including food service, retailing and financial services; Charter President, Columbus Chapter of the Entrepreneurship Institute; a member of National Speakers Association and Past President of its Ohio Chapter. Phil has achieved the distinction of Certified Speaking Professional, one of approximately 500 worldwide.

Phil's fast-paced, interactive presentations emphasize the importance of enjoyment in the work place. His programs are customized to provide practical information and know-how to increase sales, profits, employee, customer and member loyalty. Some of his clients include IBM, Nationwide Insurance, Wendy's, McDonald's, The Ohio Society of CPA's, General Electric, AT&T, Chase, YMCA of America, National Emergency Number Association, Bands of America, American Cancer Society, Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield, and United Way.