

Steve Stivers

Lieutenant Colonel and Former State Senator

An accomplished leader, Steve Stivers has extensive experience in government, finance and the military, as well as a strong commitment to community and family.

Steve served as State Senator from January 2003 until December 2008. Throughout his career in the Ohio General Assembly, State Senator Steve Stivers was an advocate for programs and initiatives that promoted economic development and encouraged job creation. In his time in the Ohio Senate, he sponsored legislation to end lawsuit abuse, protect children and families, lower taxes for Ohio seniors, freeze skyrocketing college tuition costs, and improve Ohio's business climate.

Prior to his service in public office, Steve maintained a professional career including seven years with Bank One, three years at the Ohio Company and five years as a staff member in the Ohio Senate.

He is currently a Lieutenant Colonel in the Ohio Army National Guard. He has more than 24 years of service and served our nation overseas for nearly a year as a Battalion Commander in a combat zone during Operation Iraqi Freedom in Kuwait, Iraq, Qatar and Djibouti. Lt. Colonel Stivers led 400 soldiers and contractors during that deployment and is proud that each and every individual returned safely home following their mission. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his accomplishments and leadership during the deployment.

Steve holds a Masters degree in Business Administration from The Ohio State University (1996) and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and International Relations from The Ohio State University (1989). He is currently a business consultant working to help companies stay in business, improve operations and create and retain jobs in the ever-changing economy.

614.947.6888

FRANKLIN UNIVERSITY
LEADERSHIP
CENTER

leadership.franklin.edu