

Gregory Jones

Senior Vice President, State Farm Insurance Companies

Gregory Jones is the senior vice president of State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company and is a member of the Chairman's Council.

Mr. Jones started his State Farm career in 1968 at the Ohio Regional Office. Following a number of promotions, he was named division manager in the Pennsylvania Region in 1983, executive assistant in the President's Office in 1985, deputy regional vice president in the Northern California Region in 1988, and regional vice president in the South Coast Region in 1993. He was appointed senior vice president to State Farm Mutual Companies in 2001.

Mr. Jones currently serves on the board of directors for State Farm General Insurance Company and Operation Hope and was recently appointed to the California State Board of Education. He is chairman of the board of the California Business Roundtable and the California Business for Education Excellence Foundation and past chairman of the Los Angeles Urban League and Junior Achievement of Southern California. He is a member of the Board of Advisors of Franklin University and the National Urban League. He received his Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation in 1986.

Mr. Jones holds a bachelor's degree from Franklin University and master degrees from Hood College and the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton Business School. In 2006 he was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from Franklin University.